SLOANE 1 to 2

More of my Expressions

A year has passed and now you are two. And what a wonderful year it has been. You walk and run, you swim at the cottage, you go to school - you are growing up in front of our eyes! We thought we had seen all of your expressions last year but little did we know! You continue to charm us (grandparents are easily charmed) and are a joy to your Mom and Daddy - O.

You, and your cousin Blake, are your Papa's favourite photography subjects. He loves your smiles, your good nature, and all the clothes your Mom likes to dress you in. Your Gramma of course can't spend enough time with you and we both look forward to talking with and seeing you on Skype when we can't be with you.

We especially enjoyed your first Christmas pageant this year and are looking forward to next Christmas already. This summer will be very special with the new slide on the raft - we know you will be spending hours in the lake.

Thank you Sloane for all your expressions. You make us smile and laugh. We love you.

HAPPY SECOND BIRTHDAY SLOANE
Your Papa Bill and Gramma Gail
