ME AGAIN!

BABY BLAKE

NOW FOR THE "TWO"S"

by Bill and Gail Lockington

July 2014

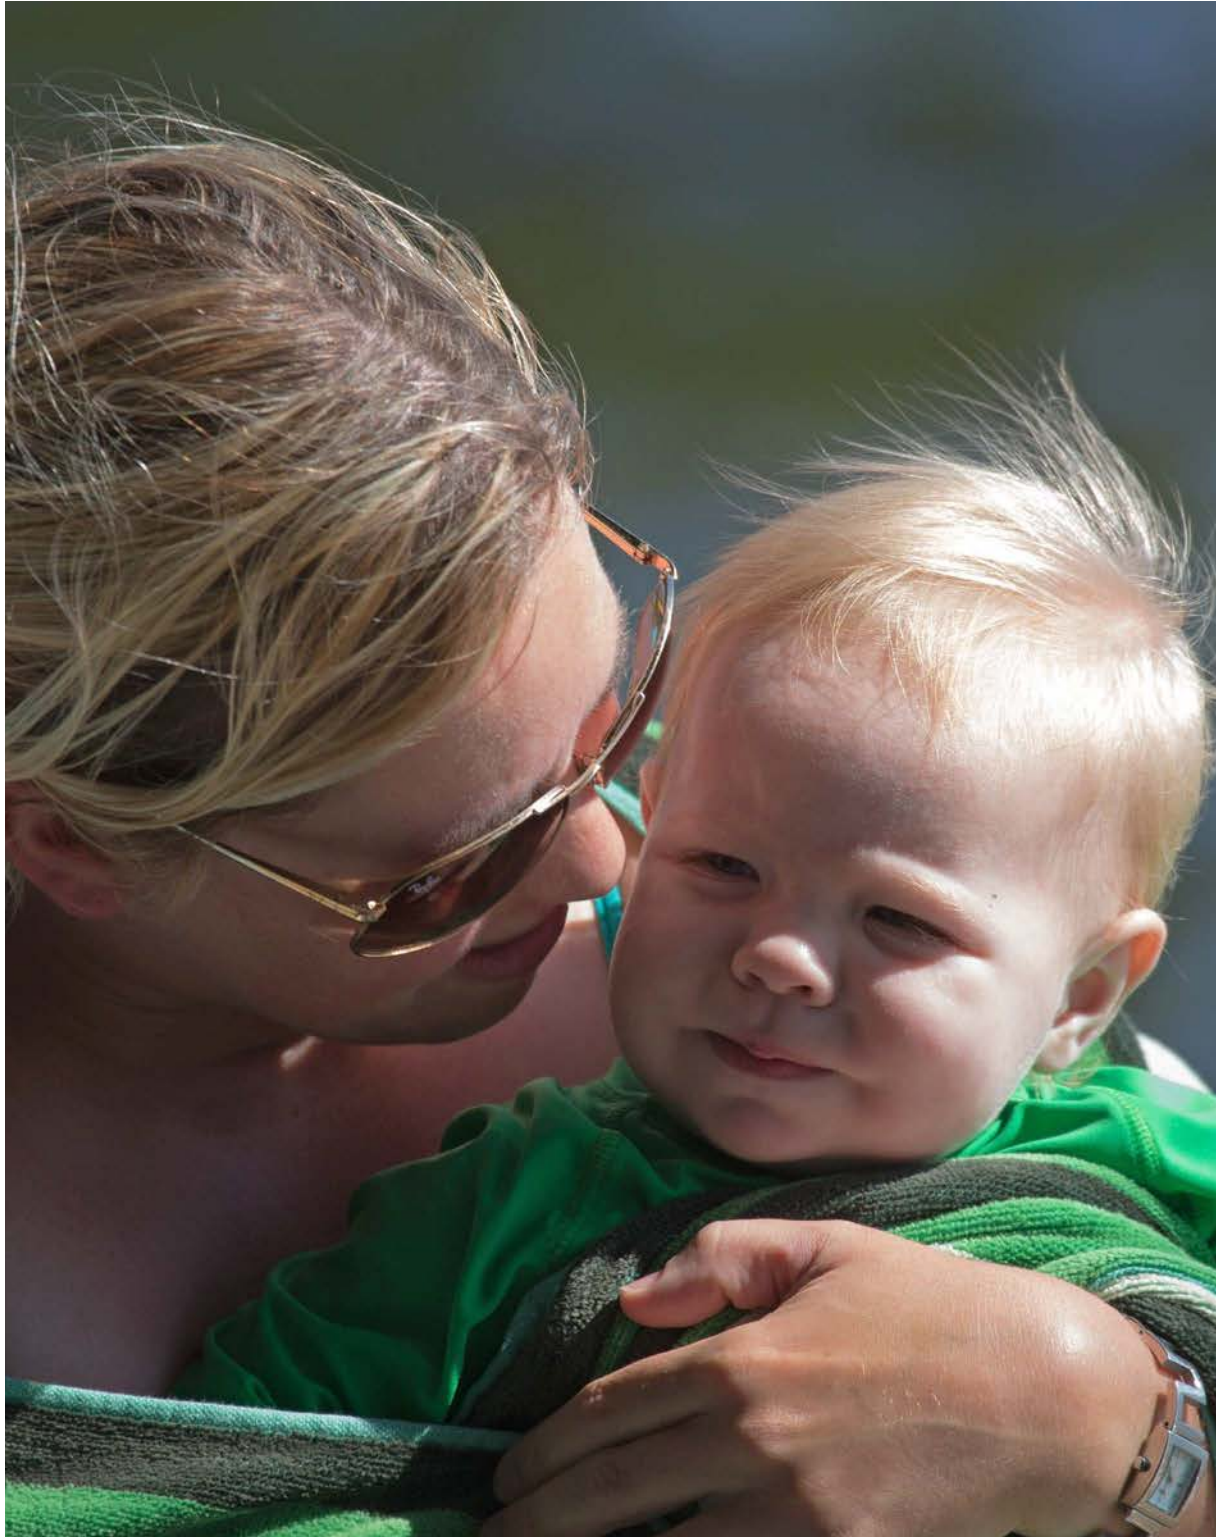

Hi Blake; Here you are again, but now you are TWO and MY how you have changed and grown. You are still "BABY BLAKE" to your cousin Sloane (we think that will always be the case) but now you are a little lady, You learned to walk this year and your "walk" has become a "run"; so much fun to see you scoot across the room with that look of glee on your face. Your personality is beginning to show itself and we see that determination (we won't call it stubbornness yet) that your Mom used to exhibit from time to time. Your "words" are becoming sentences, letting us know what you are really thinking and making yourself heard.

Having your first birthday at the cottage was lots of fun. It was a beautiful day on the beach and then, just like so many others, presents on the deck with all of us. We put up the little blue swing for you and Sloane between the two big pine trees and you spent lots of time going higher and higher. It has become one of your favourite things, just like the red tricycle you ride on the deck.

Christmas was in Peterborough and you and Sloane were dressed in matching outfits. Your Great Grandma Lockington loved seeing you (as she always does) and your big sister Morgan had a great time with you under the tree. Someone (I wonder who?) brought you your own Muskoka chair.

March Break was special for us this year. Your Mom and Dad went to Aruba for a winter holiday and you came to visit with us for the week. Didn't we have fun! I think your Mom and Dad were worried leaving you but they sure didn't need to - you were great. It reminded us of when we left your Mom, aunt Jen and uncle Jamie with your Great Grandma Porter and we travelled. I hope you spend the week with us again.

It has been a wonderful year Blake. We hope you will enjoy some of these pictures of Year 2 in years to come. With our love, Grandma and Poppa Bill
